

Know Your Mates Before Your Signing Date

"Your best friend might not be the best housemate."

There's always loads of student housing. If you're concerned about losing out on housemates, please don't worry. It's better to disappoint your current flatmates in the short term than to have tension and conflict in your house next year.

Once you've signed a contract, it's difficult to get out of it. There'll be Housemate Finder events for you to meet groups/other singles. Take as much time as you need to find the right people!

Are you happy with the number of people in your group?

Have you spoken about how much you're willing to spend on rent?

Are you on the same page about what you can afford to pay on bills?

Do you agree on whether it's more important to have a warm house or to save money on bills?

Would you prefer to live somewhere with bills included in the rent?

Do you all agree on how frequently people should do the dishes, take the bins out, etc...?
